Kids in the Kommunity is a school-based enterprise that was created three years ago following the changes in the guidelines for school-based enterprises involving food. As the old saying goes, “When life gives you lemons, make lemonade.” After considering new possibilities for our School-Based Enterprise, we developed the idea of creating seasonal crafts to sell throughout our school “Kommunity” and the greater Greenville community.

Our student employees work hard throughout the year to design, create, and sell a variety of unique seasonal crafts. Students are involved in many aspects of the business, including painting, drawing, developing new craft ideas, creating products, preparing items for sale, and assisting with sales. Kids in the Kommunity provides students with meaningful, hands-on work experiences while encouraging creativity, teamwork, responsibility, and entrepreneurship.

Through this enterprise, students have the opportunity to showcase their talents while creating products that bring joy to our school and community. All money earned through Kids in the Kommunity goes directly back into the school-based enterprise to support the continued growth of the program, purchase supplies, and provide additional opportunities for our student employees.
